Give a man a fish and he will eat for a day. Teach a man how to fish and you feed him for a lifetime.

IMPORTANT:

For this to work, you must read EVERYTHING carefully and thoughtfully.

MONEY is not a physical thing.

MONEY is an ENERGY.

The only way to attract more of it is to improve your personal relationship with that ENERGY.

Then, that ENERGY can bring you THINGS, via MONEY.

Remember these 3 Truths:

TRUTH No 1 is:

Money is not a physical “thing,” it is an ENERGY.

TRUTH No. 2 is:

To attract more money, you must improve your relationship with “Money Energy.”

And TRUTH No. 3 is:

Money comes from ONE place and ONE place only: OTHER PEOPLE.

Before I explain the “Money Secret,” let me explain a bit more about the nature of money.

Money is not inherently good or bad. Like all powerful tools, it can be used for good or bad purposes.

Think of a flame. It can provide light, keep you warm, and cook your food. But too much of it, used recklessly, can burn and destroy an entire community.

If, for some reason, you think of money as a bad thing, you must realize you are preventing it from flowing to you.

Think about the GOOD things you can do with money.

Some believe “money is the root of all evil,” citing a Biblical quote. But that is a misquote.

The actual quote is that “LOVE of money is the root of all evil.” In other words, money is not evil, but people who glorify money, for greedy purposes, often perform evil, selfish deeds, like robberies and murders.

Money, itself, is neutral. It is people that decide whether or not to form a responsible, positive relationship with money; attracting it to help themselves, and others.

Author Arnold Patent said, “The sole purpose of money is to express appreciation.”

Indeed, that is truly what the purpose of money is meant to be.

Remember it.

And so, if you want the universe to send more money your way, what are YOU doing, in your life, for which the UNIVERSE should express gratitude toward YOU?

How much positivity and value can you bring into the world on a daily basis?

The answer: You might be surprised.

I'll give you some ideas later.

In order to start quickly attracting money, you must learn to transform your idea of money from being a "thing" into a "flow of energy."

When you think of money, do you see a dollar bill? A gold coin?

If you were lost in the desert, dying of hunger and thirst, a pile of $100 bills and gold coins next to you would be worthless.

I own an actual, authentic $100 Trillion Dollar bill. It was issued by the government of Zimbabwe in 2009.

A trillion is a million millions. There are 12 zeros in a trillion. And yet the $100 Trillion Dollar bill would barely cover the cost of a loaf of bread in Zimbabwe. Today, the bill is worthless, except to people like me, who purchase them off eBay as a curiosity.

OR maybe it really has even more value than ever:

It's a powerful reminder for me about what TRUE value, TRUE money is, instead of the worthless things we use to merely symbolize it.

We so easily focus on the wrong thing.

You can't attract money until you know how to focus on REAL money.

I'll get to that soon. I promise.

You must also be realistic when asking yourself how much money you REALLY need to be happy.

It's okay to want money. We all need it to survive. But do you REALLY need a million dollars?

In 2015, I published a book called Use the Force: A Jedi's Guide to the Law of Attraction. You should definitely add it to your book list. You can find it as a printed book, eBook, or Audio Book (read by me) on my website:

<http://www.JoshuaPWarren.com>

In the book, I recounted the sad story of an Illinois man who won a $20 million lottery in 1996. He was very generous with his money, lavishing gifts on his friends and loved ones.

However, his sister-in-law, and her boyfriend, wanted more. They kidnapped him, initially with a ransom plan. However, things went awry, and they shot him in the head, killing him.

These tragic stories are far too common among those who suddenly receive extraordinary amounts of money. It becomes a curse. All the problems the money was meant to solve can quickly transform into much more serious problems.

That is another reason you should think, very carefully, about how much you really need to attain a reasonable amount of happiness and liberty.

Now let's move on to the technique that will allow abundance to start flowing your way quickly.

THE PROCESS

* NOTE: This entire process should be done when you are alone and undistracted—even if that means a long trip to the bathroom. *

1. A COIN

Find a coin of currency from a foreign country. Any foreign country will do, but the more exotic, the better.

You might have one lying around, or you might ask a friend for one, or you might even jump online and buy something.

Here, where I am, the United States, a piece of Canadian or Mexican currency can work just fine, so long as it doesn't seem too familiar to you.

It's important for you to KNOW this was created as legitimate currency, even if it's outdated like the Zimbabwe bill I own. Just make sure it seems odd to you.

Once you have your coin, proceed to Step 2.

2. THE GOOD FORTUNE TONE

Go to this page: <http://www.MoneyMiracleSecretVIP.com>

There you will find 3 audio clips.

This is a piece of “music” I created using “The Good Fortune Tone.”

I created “The Good Fortune Tone” by extracting sound from a Golden Ratio symbol using the field of research called Para-Cymatics 2.0.

The Golden Ratio symbol brings your mind into a special state of harmony via sympathetic resonance.

One version of the audio is 5 minutes long, another is 10 minutes, and finally 30 minutes.

Put on some good headphones or earbuds, hold the coin in your hand, and close your eyes. Then breathe deeply in and out as you listen to the 5-minute “Good Fortune Tone.”

After the 5-minute audio is over, open your eyes and proceed to Step 3.

By the way, the longer versions of the audio are only there in case, in the future, you want to spend more time listening to the tone. But that is completely optional.

3. FREE THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE BRAIN

Generally speaking, we consider the “left side” of the brain as controlling functions regarding intellect, math, logic, critical thinking, etc.

We generally consider the “right side” of the brain as controlling art, imagination, creativity, emotions, etc.

The critical left side of brain may be responsible for your doubts about attracting money. It may tell you “this can’t work,” or “this is a scam,” or “getting money is sleazy.”

That kind of thinking is what prevents the brain from comfortably and easily tapping into the “Energy of Money.”

We need to distract the left side of the brain and let the right side speak freely.

So, after listening to the audio, and holding your coin, hold up your head, look upwards, imagine the universe and say out loud “Thank you for all that I have. And thank you for all that I am about to receive.”

Then, and this is the weirdest part, I want you to say that again, but this time, as you think the words, just allow gibberish to come out of your mouth.

Huh? I know. It’s weird.

But why do you think wizards sometimes use nonsense phrases like “bibbidi-bobbidi-boo” or “abracadabra?”

It is to distract the critical “left brain” and allow the creative “right brain” to spill forth more fluidly.

Whatever comes out of your mouth, just make sure it’s nothing intelligible to you. It should truly sound like nonsense sounds.

This is what happens when your thoughts are able to “speak” directly to the universe, unimpeded by the limitations of your tongue.

Next, look to your coin, and simply say, in your regular language “thank you.”

Then, put on your headphones or earbuds and listen to the Good Fortune Tone one last time.

Afterward, put your coin in a place where you will see it the next day, like next to your daily medications/vitamins or your car keys.

And now, Step 4 . . .

4. REINFORCEMENT

Keep your coin in a place where you will see it as often as possible each day.

Every time you see it, just smile and say “thank you,” in your mind (it doesn’t have to be out loud) as you remember that money is NOT a coin or a BILL or a DIGIT on a screen or piece of paper; money is ENERGY.

Move the coin around between 3 or 4 different places, day-by-day, so you never get used to seeing it in one place all the time.

So one day it might be next to your toothbrush.

The next day, it’s beside your daily meds/vitamins.

The next day, it’s beside your favorite beverage in the fridge, etc.

This keeps it fresh on your mind.

It’s also okay for you to keep it with you, in your pocket, all day; just try not to lose it or accidentally spend it.

But if you do lose it, it’s no big deal. Just get another coin and start over.

You might even have a coin, of a certain kind, that you move around your house; and another, of another kind, that you take with you when you walk out the door.

That’s fine. Use as many exotic coins as you want, as long as you mentally say “thank you” whenever you see it.

I have used the example of a coin in this guide simply because coins are convenient to move around, and less likely to blow away.

But it’s fine to use a bill, as well, just like my Zimbabwe bill.

The whole point of the exercise is to train your brain to think differently about money—to realize that the physical currency itself DOES NOT MATTER. It is only a tangible reminder for you of what DOES matter.

Additionally, try to listen to the Good Fortune tone at least once a day. It’s okay if you can’t, or don’t, but it will help things manifest more quickly for you.

Keep doing all of this the rest of your life.

5. RECEIVE

Once you start manifesting, you may be amazed by how money, or things that are WORTH money, just begin to appear in your life.

You never know exactly how it's going to happen.

The universe can bring you what you need in ways unimaginable to you.

Therefore, don't limit yourself by expecting abundance to come in one particular way.

Stay open to opportunities.

Different people are able to see, and utilize, the value in different things.

Sure, you might get an unexpected check in the mail.

Or you might win the lotto.

Or you might receive an inheritance.

Or you might just get a big discount on something that you didn't expect. A penny saved is a penny earned!

But you should always keep your mind open to things that fall into your lap which you can turn into money. This is true "alchemy."

For example, one person may find value in discovering some great real estate to sell.

Another person might discover an ideal house or car to flip.

Another might literally want to strike gold in the back yard.

For me, as an entrepreneur, IDEAS have always been the most valuable thing.

Open your mind and EXPECT TO RECEIVE.

Let me repeat. EXPECT TO RECEIVE; even if you're just strolling down the street.

But it doesn't do you any good to sit, like a toad on a stone, and do nothing.

You have to somehow become an active, positive, creative participant in the world, even if it's only through the internet.

When I was in high school, I met a children's book author named Bill Brittain.

He wrote a book called ALL THE MONEY IN THE WORLD.

It was about a boy who met a leprechaun. As his wish, the boy asked for all the money in the world. Best I remember, in a whirlwind, it all came to him, and he stored it in a barn.

When the boy spent some money in a shop, it immediately whipped back into his barn. The shopkeeper said, "this is not useful to me!" The boy ultimately realized something important:

Money is not a possession.

Money is a dynamic exchange between people. Without exchange, money is worthless. People are energy, and so money is a representation of that energy.

Where does money come from?

OTHER PEOPLE.

Each day, you must smile and open your mind, ready and aware to notice new opportunities.

Even if you're only online, smile "virtually."

You will attract abundant energy into your life.

But also think about how you can be useful.

How can you help to solve problems for others?

You might not think you're a talented or skilled person, but I GUARANTEE you, you are.

You just might be taking the things you're good at for granted because they come easy to you. But, trust me, things that come easy to you might not come so easy for others.

Think of things that come easily for you.

Can you draw? Can you drive safely? Can you write a clear sentence? Can you set up a social media page? Can you make something? Fix something? Give advice about something? Build something big or small?

You can do SOMETHING well! And if you can't figure it out, ask your friends and loved ones this question: "What do I do really well?"

Just listen to what they say.

Whether it's an entertainment, an art, or a skill, whatever you can do well is valuable to someone else who can't do it well. If you attract those people into your life, you can solve their problems, and they will happily pay you for it.

When I was a kid, a relative told me "Do what you love and the money will come."

It turns out that's not always ENTIRELY TRUE. The truth is:

"Do what you're good at, and the money will come."

And it's never too late to try out new things.

Look for opportunities that the universe will present to you once you start tapping into the "Money Energy" using the information I've given you.

You will become inspired to look for people in life, and on the net, who will value what YOU're good at.

And whenever you receive money, give some back somehow. If you hoard it up, you stop the flow of energy.

Have you ever read about the real man who inspired the character Ebenezer Scrooge?

Go online and look up "John Elwes."

He was single, and he died with the equivalent of $20 million dollars. And yet he lived in rags. He ate putrid meat he could find on a river bank, and slept in the cold rain since he didn't want to repair a hole in his roof.

How much good could Elwes have done for himself, and others, if he'd have given back more of his money—actually USED IT and enjoyed its flow—during his life.

Don't take your life for granted.

Keep the "Money Energy" going. Give and receive.

THE THREE TRUTHS

1. Money is not a physical “thing,” it is an ENERGY.
2. To attract more money, you must improve your relationship with “Money Energy.”
3. Money comes from ONE place and ONE place only: OTHER PEOPLE.

THE FIVE STEPS

1. Exotic Coin
2. The Good Fortune Tone
3. Free the “right side” of the brain.
4. Reinforcement
5. Receive

Stay aware, and expect wonderful surprises and opportunities from the universe at any moment!

LAST, BUT IMPORTANT!

I have created this content for you, and given it to you for FREE, up front.

When you see it work for you, please go to my site and pay whatever you think it was worth.

YOU determine the value.

Just remember once again, in life, you MUST always give in order to receive.

You must keep giving in order to keep receiving.

That is one of the fundamental laws of the universe; and especially of being an abundant, happy human being.

Your payment will express gratitude, and help to share this, and other educational and inspirational, content with other people all over the world.

Always spend some of your money freely to nourish the sources of your spiritual well-being and help others.

Otherwise, you will lose all that you have obtained.

Let me repeat that:

If you don't give some back, you will lose all that you have obtained.

When you have seen results, and you're ready to pay what you want, please go to this special gratitude page:
